

Counseling.Support.Service.

Informing and supporting families who provide assistance and care for older adult relatives, partners or friends.

Counseling

Get assistance identifying strategies, options and resources for the care of your loved one through personal consultations with an eldercare counselor. Consultations take place by phone, email or in-person. Receive a packet of targeted information and have follow-up contact with the counselor as needed.

Instead of spending hours piecing together information on the tangled web of services available, let us streamline your search and offer a comprehensive, accurate, and detailed look at all options available including housing options, home care, adult daycare, financial assistance, transportation and caregiver support services.

Seminars

Learn about a variety of aging and eldercare topics by attending informational seminars held throughout the region in community locations and workplaces. Topics include: "Effective Communication with Older Adults", "Senior Housing Options", "Managing the Stress of Caregiving" and "Elder Care Essentials". Call for current schedule or to arrange to host a seminar.

Telephone Conference Call Programs

Telephone Seminars: Learn conveniently by telephone from home. Listen to presentations by local experts on matters of interest to family caregivers, ask questions and receive written handout materials. One-hour seminars held periodically, often in the evening for convenience. Call for current schedule.

12-Week Tune-up Class: Reduce the stress and strain of caregiving; solve problems more effectively and learn about community resources. Attend award-winning and effective conference call classes led by a licensed clinical social worker. This 12-week program is held periodically with convenient one-hour evening telephone classes. Call for current schedule.

Telephone Support Groups

To access any of these services, call The Caregiver Connection at 518-465-1398.

Practical. Friendly. Supportive.

For older adults who are generally homebound, isolated, and in need of a little extra help.

Shopping Assistance

Volunteers go to a senior's home and pick up their shopping list and payment. After shopping, volunteers bring in the purchases, receipt and change. Shopping is done weekly or bi-weekly at a time convenient to both parties.

Friendly Home Visiting

Volunteers go to a senior's home weekly to provide socialization and companionship. Activities may include playing cards, taking walks or chatting. Matches are made based on personality, common interests and geographic location. Visits occur at times agreeable to both the senior and volunteer.

Getting Started

To learn more about these programs, call the Volunteer Services Department, 518-432-0813. Calls may be placed by seniors themselves, friends, family or other community agencies.

The Volunteer Coordinator conducts home visits with all interested seniors. Volunteers are carefully screened and trained. These services are dependent on the availability of a well-matched volunteer so not all requests for service can be fulfilled.

Details

Services are partially funded by the Albany County Department for Aging; there is no cost to receive these services. (Grocery expenses are the responsibility of seniors receiving shopping services).

Those utilizing the programs will be given an opportunity to make a contribution towards expanding the programs to serve others. No one is denied service because they are unable to or choose not to contribute.
